Fr. Mark grew up in the Detroit area where he served Mass every Sunday at Old St. Mary’s in Downtown Detroit. He entered the seminary in Rome in 1978. He was in Rome for the election of Pope St. John Paul II for whom he served Mass several times while in the seminary. Fr. Mark was ordained at Old St. Mary’s, Detroit, in 1986. He has served in parishes in the Los Angeles Archdiocese, in a Chapel in a mall in Boston and as a hospital Chaplain in southern Illinois, near St. Louis before coming to Grand Rapids. He has been a Chaplain for Legatus for over 10 years.

Before his ordination, Fr. Joe Krupp traveled North America with Youth to Youth Catholic Evangelization. He was Chaplain, teacher, and coach at Lansing Catholic H.S. from 99-09. He has served as Chaplain and Director of Campus Ministry at Michigan State University and is presently the Chaplain for MSU Spartan Football. Fr. Krupp holds degrees from UM-Flint and Sacred Heart Major Seminar. Author of Smart Answers and Bad Jokes from a Priest Who Proves God Has a Sense of Humor, Fr. Krupp is a columnist for Faith magazine, ABC News, and Catholic TV.

James is an attorney by profession, receiving his law degree from the University of Notre Dame. Jim retired early to devote full-time to serving the poor. During the wars in Bosnia and Kosovo, Jim coordinated relief programs delivering medicine and medical equipment to hospitals and refugee centers in the war zones. For the past 25 years he has worked in the Amazon bringing aid to lepers, indigenous tribes, children, and the poor. Jim has received the National Peace Award given by the National Fraternity of the Secular Franciscan Order.

Patrick Madrid is an author and radio personality. He hosts the popular daily “Patrick Madrid Show,” aired nationally on Relevant. Patrick has authored or edited 27 books on Catholic themes, including the acclaimed Surprised by Truth series. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in business at the University of Phoenix, as well as a B.Phil. in philosophy and an M.A. in dogmatic theology at the Pontifical College Josephinum. Patrick currently teaches as an adjunct professor of theology at Holy Apostles College & Seminary in Cromwell, Connecticut.

Patty has been working in lay ministry for over ten years and is a writer for Blessed is She. She has a Masters in Pastoral Studies from Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit and currently works as a Pastoral Associate. She is passionate about messy conversations at the intersection of faith, culture, and ministry. Her heart burns for better pastoral care to divorced Catholics and women whose relationships have been impacted by sexual addiction.

Our Mission:
To study, live and spread the Faith in our business, professional and personal lives.
The world needs genuine witnesses to Christian ethics in the field of business, and the Church asks you to fulfill this role publicly with courage and perseverance.
