THE LEGATUS MISSION

PREFACE In the love of Our Lord Jesus Christ, His Church, and His Vicar on earth, Legatus is an international organization of practicing Catholic laymen and laywomen, comprised of CEOs, presidents and managing partners with their spouses as equal members, from the business community.

MISSION STATEMENT To study, live, and spread the faith in our business, professional and personal lives.

THE THREEFOLD PURPOSE

STUDY Ongoing education is at the heart of Legatus. Our members’ thirst for knowledge is matched with the most profound and convincing body of religious knowledge in the history of human thought—our Catholic Faith.

LIVE Translating the teachings of Christ and His Church into practical applications helps our members become eminently pragmatic about their faith.

SPREAD Our members, who are “ambassadors for Christ,” don’t typically wear their faith on their shirtsleeves. They spread the faith through good works, good ideas, and high ethical standards.
JANUARY 16 at St. Luke & Meridian Hills

The Face of Art & Film

JOSEPH CAMPO
Producer/Director, Grassroots Films, Inc.

Joseph Campo is a producer, public speaker, cinematographer, still photographer and musician. As CEO of Grassroots Films, Inc., he executive-produced God in the Streets of New York City, Fishers of Men (commissioned by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops) and the award-winning documentary, The Human Experience. He also directed Outcasts, which is screening now. A Third Order Franciscan, Campo is director of the St. Francis House in Brooklyn, N.Y., where he has served as a drug and alcohol counselor, mentor and father figure for 26 years.

FEBRUARY 20 at St. Luke and Meridian Hills

The Face of Holiness

MARIO ENZLER
Former Swiss Guard

Mario Enzler is a former musician, Swiss Guard, Swiss banker and tax fiduciary. After moving to the United States, he hoped to introduce authentic gelato in New England, but instead, he and his wife founded a classical-curriculum academy in New Hampshire. He currently works and teaches at the Busch School of Business in Washington, D.C. He also speaks at conferences and men's retreats about the role Pope John Paul II had in helping him become a better man, executive and leader.

MARCH 19 at Marian University's Allison Mansion

Lenten Retreat

REV. MSGR. JOSEPH F. SCHAEDEL
Pastor, St. Luke Catholic Church

Rev. Msgr. Joseph Schaedel has been our Legatus chaplain for more than 20 years. He has actively served the Archdiocese as vicar general; moderator of the curia; and director of vocations, the Missions Office and the Office of Pro-Life Activities. He is currently pastor of St. Luke Catholic Church and has pastored at St. Michael the Archangel, St. Monica and Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary. He is a former instructor at Cardinal Ritter Junior/Senior High School.

APRIL 16 at St. Michael and Woodstock Club

The Face of Saints

DR. PAUL KENGOR
Esteemed Author and Historian

Paul Kengor, Ph.D., is professor of political science at Grove City College in Pennsylvania and a New York Times best-selling author of more than a dozen books. He is an internationally recognized authority on Ronald Reagan, the Reagan presidency, the Cold War, communism, socialism and conservatism. He is a frequent commentator and speaker. In 2017, he released A Pope and a President: John Paul II, Ronald Reagan and the Extraordinary Untold Story of the 20th Century. Several of his books are the bases for major films.

MAY 21 at St. Luke and Meridian Hills

The Face of Intimacy

DANIEL ELSENER
President, Marian University

Under Daniel Elsener's leadership over 18 years, Marian University has seen great success, quadrupling its enrollment. He serves as a consultant and speaker on a variety of topics, including excellence in education, leadership development, stewardship and institutional advancement. He serves on the board of St. Vincent Health and is involved in several other organizations associated with Catholic colleges and universities. He was also named to the Indianapolis Business Journal's "Who's Who" in both health care and education.

JUNE 18 at St. Luke and Meridian Hills

The Face of Wartime

FR. MATTHEW PAWLIKOWSKI
USMA Chaplain, West Point

Chaplain (Colonel) Fr. Matt Pawlikowski graduated from The U.S. Military Academy at West Point, was commissioned Infantry and served six years of active duty before being ordained a Catholic priest in 1997. He served in a civilian parish and then returned to active duty as an Army chaplain in 2000. He has served in the U.S., Korea, Egypt, Afghanistan and Germany and is currently assigned as the senior chaplain at West Point, the first Catholic ever to hold the job.
OCTOBER 15 at St. Luke and Meridian Hills
The Face of Brokenness
KEVIN MATTHEWS
Radio Personality, Comedian and Author

Kevin Matthews was a well-known ABC and CBS radio personality in Chicago when he was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis in 2008. He was the drive-time radio host for 17 years on AM 1000 The Loop, and ABC and CBS radio, where he was also the voice of sports commentator Jim Shorts and other characters. As a comedian and radio personality, he entertained 10 million listeners weekly, hundreds of thousands of people inside prisons and Army bases and 65,000 fans at a single show in Grant Park. Broken Mary is Matthews' story of his early years in radio and stand-up comedy, his successful career, his struggle with MS, his awakening to the dignity of women, and a chance encounter with a broken statue of Mary left next to a dumpster—and all that happened as a result.

SEPTEMBER 17 at St. Luke and Meridian Hills
The Face of Homelessness
SALLY BINDLEY
Founder and CEO, School on Wheels

Sally Bindley holds bachelor of science degrees in education and social policy from Northwestern University and a master of social work from Indiana University. She is a graduate of the Stanley K. Lacy Executive Leadership Series and holds many awards for her work, including the Sagamore of the Wabash and the Jefferson Award for Public Service. She currently serves on the board of The Patachou Foundation and is a past board president for the Family Advocacy Center. She has practiced as a school social worker and family counselor for victims of domestic violence.

NOVEMBER 19 at St. Michael and Woodstock Club
The Face of Faithful Stewardship
ANGELA LENNOX
Owner, Avian and Exotic Animal Clinic

Angela M. Lennox is a graduate of Purdue University School of Veterinary Medicine and the owner of Avian and Exotic Animal Clinic, one of the first practices in the world dedicated to the care of non-traditional pet species. She holds three specialty degrees in exotic animal medicine, and she lectures nationally and internationally on exotic medicine topics. She is a Cursillista and a member of St. Joseph’s Catholic Church in Lebanon, Ind. She and her husband of more than 30 years are parents of four daughters, two of which have planned careers in exotic animal medicine.
